

871—10.8(84A) Information management bureau. The bureau is under the direction of a chief who assists the division administrator in planning, developing, directing, and coordinating the department's plan with automation technology.